DEVASTATED BY EARTHQUAKES

Cities in Spain Reported to Have Been Stricken.

SWEPT BY A TIDAL WAVE

Barcelona Said to Have Been Overwhelmed, Though the Loss of Life Is Not Known—Landslide Buried the Village of Romara and Several Hundred Inhabitants—Many Houses Damaged in Totana.

London, Jan. 30.—A special dispatch received here from San Sebastian, Spain, says that a terrible earthquake has devastated several towns and villages in South and Southeastern Spain.

A tidal wave partially submerged the coast near Barcelona and a great landslide at Ceuta buried the village of Romara and several hundred inhabitants.

A dispatch from Tarrasa says that Barcelona has been overwhelmed by a tidal wave. The loss of life is unknown.

Subterranean roarings preceded the tidal wave, causing a fearful panic among the people on the promenades and in the buildings of the city.

News from Malaga says that many houses were damaged in the town of Totana and several villages in the province of Murcia.

Tarrasa, whence comes the report of a great tidal wave at Barcelona, is fifteen miles distant from the latter city. Barcelona is the second largest city in Spain, situated on the Mediterranean, in the northeastern part of the country. It has a population of 450,000.

Paris, Jan. 30.—Neither the newspapers nor the Havas agency have received any news of the reported earthquake and tidal wave in Spain beyond the press dispatch concerning the disturbances at Malaga. The reports of further shocks are probably based upon this. Romara, the village mentioned as being buried, in special dispatches to London, is not in Spain, but in Africa, fifty miles south of Ceuta.

TWO KILLED BY EXPLOSION

Three Hundred Other Miners Have Narrow Escapes.

Pittsburg, Jan. 30.—Two men were killed and 300 others narrowly escaped death from an explosion of coal dust at the Sewickley mine of the Keystone Coal and Coke company at Madison, Pa., near here. The dead are Alonzo Varnathan, aged twenty-one years, and Paul Bozia, aged twenty-three years.

The explosion caused a panic among the day shift at work, numbering about 300 men, and all made a rush for the exits. With the exception of the two victims mentioned all succeeded in escaping before the fire-damp settled around where they were working. Carnathan, who was working about a mile and a half from the mine entrance, is supposed to have loaded a car with slate and while waiting for it to be removed, to have fired a shot igniting the dust. The bodies of both dead men indicate that they were not killed by the explosion, but were suffocated by the fire-damp.

Half a dozen fire bosses entered the mine after the explosion and brought out both bodies. They pronounced the mine safe and later the night shift of miners went to work as usual.

HAS ABOUT REACHED FOCUS

Government Investigation Into Alleged Panama Canal Libel.

Washington, Jan. 30.—That the government's investigation into the publication of alleged libelous articles in the New York World and the Indianapolis News in connection with the purchase of the Panama canal has about reached a focus was made evident when it became known that United States District Attorney Stinson for the Southern district of New York was a party to important conferences at the White House and at the department of justice.

These conferences gave rise to various rumors in regard to the inquiry. One of these was to the effect that the libel case in New York so far as the federal government is concerned would be abandoned and would be taken up by District Attorney Jerome in the New York state courts.

Another had it that Douglas Robinson, President Roosevelt's brother-in-law, practically had decided to become one of the complaining witnesses in the case both in New York and in the District courts here. The parties to the conferences declined absolutely to discuss the case in any way. Hence the correctness of any of these rumors could not be established. It was intimated at the department of justice, however, that Mr. Stinson, who had left for New York, would have something to say soon regarding his presence here. Attorney General Bonaparte has left for his home in Baltimore and will not return before Monday.

The most important development before the federal grand jury was the refusal of J. Angus Shaw, secretary-treasurer of the Press Publishing company of New York, publishers of the World, to testify, because he might incriminate himself. This phase of the case will be determined by Justice Gould in criminal court next Monday morning.

Woman Confesses to Crime.

Sharon, Pa., Jan. 30.—The mystery involved in the murder of James Harry on last Thanksgiving eve was cleared when the man's wife, Mrs. Ella Harry, who was arrested charged with the crime, confessed the details of the tragedy. According to her confession, Mrs. Harry killed her husband because he chided her for not paying bills for which he had given her money.

Widows Granted Franking Privilege.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Frances Folsom Cleveland, widow of the late President Cleveland, and Mary Lord Harrison, widow of the late President Harrison, were granted the franking privilege during lifetime by the provisions of a house bill passed by the senate.

Newspaper Plant Burned.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 30.—The plant of the Daily Oklahoma and the adjoining building occupied by the local branch of the J. I. Case Plow company, have been destroyed by fire. The combined loss is estimated at $150,000.

FIRE IN ST. PAUL IS DESTRUCTIVE

Property Valued at Nearly a Million Dollars Burned.

FANNED BY A HIGH WIND

Flames for a Time Threatened to Wipe Out the Entire Upper Business Section of the City—Only the Hardest Kind of Work on the Part of the Firemen Prevented the Flames From Spreading for Blocks.

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—Lashed into a terrific fury by a forty-mile wind, which shifted during an hour from every point of the compass, fire, which broke out in the rear of the second floor of the White House, East Seventh and Cedar streets, completely gutted the building, leaped across Seventh and Cedar streets to the California Wine House and the Fey hotel, destroying both buildings, and for a time threatened the entire upper town business district of the city.

Only the hardest kind of work on the part of the firemen prevented the flames from spreading for blocks, and for the first hour it seemed that Seventh and Eighth streets, from Cedar to Wabasha streets, were doomed. The loss as estimated will range from $600,000 to $750,000, with the insurance ranging from $500,000 to $600,000.

The heaviest loss is on the White House department store and building, the entire loss being estimated at $145,000, of which $100,000 is covered by insurance. The loss on the California Wine House is given at $134,900, of which $125,000 is on the building and $9,900 on the Huber cafe and saloon. The loss on the Fey hotel building is given at $75,000, fully covered by insurance.

The fire was the most dangerous and for a time gave promise of being the worst that ever occurred in the city.

MAKE VIGOROUS DENIALS

Taft and Cromwell Refute Statements of Rainey.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Vigorous denials both by C. P. Taft and William Nelson Cromwell of the charges made in the recent speech by Mr. Rainey of Illinois on Panama canal affairs were read in the house of representatives. The communication from Mr. Taft was in the shape of a cablegram from Havana to Mr. Rainey, while Mr. Cromwell's rejoinder was addressed to Mr. Lovering of Massachusetts.

There was an animated discussion of the subject. Then the army appropriation bill again was laid before the house. The bill was not considered, however, the time being taken up in general debate. Mr. Clark of Florida argued for jury trials in lunacy proceedings in the District of Columbia. Mr. Jenkins of Wisconsin presented views holding to be unconstitutional the acts of the last session of congress in relation to the issuance of restraining orders, injunctions and contempt of court. Mr. Perkins of New York favored a lowering of the tariffs; Mr. Gaines of Tennessee attacked the so-called powder trust and Mr. Reeder of Kansas spoke in defense of the forest services. The army bill was still pending when the house adjourned.

First Fashion Show.

There will be an international wearing apparel, style and fabric show in Madison Square Garden, New York, from Aug. 14 to 21. Although the manufacture and sale of wearing apparel form the third largest industry of the United States, its members have never held any sort of trade exposition. The object of the annual show is to establish in one spot in New York, Madison Square Garden, a place where every manufacturer and buyer can meet for the inspection, purchase and sale of stock.

TO END STRIKE OF HATTERS

Governors of Three States Will Discuss Methods.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 30.—The officers of the United Hatters of North America, 20,000 of whose members are on strike, and the members of the National Fur Felt Hat Manufacturers' association having failed to make any overtures to each other for a resumption of the trade, the governors of New Jersey, New York and Connecticut will meet in conference, probably in New York, in a few days to discuss ways and means of settling the strike.

It is understood that the governors will act independently of the strikers and manufacturers.

PROBED BY SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE

Merger of Tennessee Company and Steel Corporation.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The merger of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company and the United States Steel corporation was probed by the senate committee on judiciary here, two New York bankers being examined in an executive hearing that continued through two long sessions. The witnesses were Oakleigh Thorne, president of the Trust Company of America, and George W. Perkins of the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., who is also a member of the finance board of the steel corporation.

The testimony of Mr. Perkins seems to uphold President Roosevelt's contention that the absorption of the Tennessee concern was necessary to relieve the panicky condition of securities in November, 1907.

Mr. Thorne denied that the Trust Company of America was interested in the deal in Tennessee Coal and Iron stocks and declared that the merger was not necessary to save his institution. He gave the names of many of the persons who were interested in the deal which resulted in the control of a majority of the Tennessee stock.

No decision has been reached by the committee to subpoena Judge E. H. Gary and Henry C. Frick.

Conducted by Senator Culberson.

The examination of both witnesses was conducted by Senator Culberson. Mr. Thorne, who first took the stand, testified that the Trust Company of America has no interest in the stock of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company as owner, but that on Nov. 1, 1907, it had loaned $482,700 to six individuals holding the stock at 60 as collateral. All of these loans, said Mr. Thorne, were paid off in November, with the exception of two of $52,400 each. Mr. Thorne said that he considered the securities of the loans to be absolutely good and that his company had no interest whatever in the absorption of the Tennessee company by the steel corporation and did not know of the negotiation until after it was begun.

When Mr. Perkins took the stand he was asked to state any knowledge he had of the absorption of the Tennessee company by the United States Steel corporation, and he said:

"The question of the acquisition of the Tennessee Coal and Iron company by the steel corporation was never brought up or broached in any way, so far as my knowledge goes, until perhaps the second or third acute stage of the panic developed in New York, and then it came up very suddenly because of the panic and serious disturbance that existed in New York as the result of the great depression in the market values of things and the unmarketability of a great many securities."

Mr. Perkins said that there was a general feeling, which it would be difficult for any one to express in a concrete statement that if the Tennessee Coal and Iron stocks were taken out of the various loans, some way it would prevent a great many failures and avert a further spread of the panic.

California Murderer Executed.

San Quentin, Cal., Jan. 30.—Charles Baldersar, who murdered his wife and mother-in-law in Stockton on Sept. 30, 1908, was executed in the state prison here.

THREE VOTES FROM THE GOAL

Senator Stephenson Again Fails of Re-Election.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 30.—Isaac Stephenson again failed of election in the joint session of the legislature. He received only 63 votes of the 131 cast, 66 being necessary to an election.

Assemblyman Leach of Milwaukee, who voted for Stephenson heretofore, voted for Congressman John J. Esch. Assemblyman Simon Smith, who said Thursday that he had voted for Stephenson the last time, voted for W. H. Hatton.

Assemblyman Hall introduced a joint resolution requesting Senator Stephenson to file an expense account at once. The resolution was rejected, 74 to 25.

TO BRING OUT TRUE FACTS

Proposed That Amnesty Be Granted All Who Aided in Killing Lincoln.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Speaker Cannon has received a letter from Memphis, Tenn., conveying for his consideration a bill by the terms of which it is proposed to grant amnesty and a general pardon to any person who aided or abetted the assassination of President Lincoln. The occasion suggested is the 100th anniversary of the birth of the martyred president and the reason offered is that it would serve to bring out the true facts concerning the assassination, including those figuring in the story that John Wilkes Booth was captured and killed at the Garrett house in Virginia.

INTRODUCED BY ALDRICH

Substitute for Pending Measures Regarding Discharged Soldiers.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The omnibus claims bill, carrying an appropriation of about $3,000,000, which has been favorably acted upon by the house of representatives, was passed by the senate with an amendment repealing the law allowing the reference of Southern war claims to the court claims by the senate or the house representatives.

A substitute bill for all pending measures relating to the re-enlistment of soldiers of the Twenty-fifth regiment who were discharged without honor following the Brownsville (Tex.) "shooting up," was introduced by Senator Aldrich and accepted by Senator Foraker and other Republican senators who had proposed legislation for the same purpose. It provides for a court of inquiry to pass upon the qualifications of the discharged men for re-enlistment.

France to Give Binns a Medal.

Paris, Jan. 30.—As a result of the maritime committee of the chamber of deputies making a request of the government to recognize the heroism of John R. Binns, the Marconi operator on board the White Star liner Republic when she was cut down by the Italian steamship Florida, the government decided to award Binns a special lifesaving medal.

EXPLOSION IN A NEW MINE

Kills One Man, Injures Two Others and Entombs Another.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 30.—As the result of an explosion of fire-damp following a discharge of dynamite in the new mine operated at Ashford by the Moore Investment company of Seattle, one miner was entombed under tons of rock 4,000 feet in the bowels of the mountains; another is dead from suffocation, while two are injured, one perhaps fatally.

TROUBLE ALREADY BEGUN IN CUBA

President and Vice President at Loggerheads.

Havana, Jan. 30.—The relations between President Gomez and Vice President Zayas have become seriously strained over the appointment of a man to fill the post of chief of the secret service. The friction is so acute that it is rumored that Senor Zayas has threatened to tender his resignation as vice president should President Gomez insist on the appointment of his (Gomez') nominee for the position.

Jose Jerez, the chief of police, tendered his resignation in response to a demand of the secretary of the government, Nicolas Alberdi, who explained that President Gomez has appointed as his successor Ricardo Arnau, former editor of El Reconcentrado, for "political reasons."

Jerez as an official had an excellent reputation. He had been chief of the secret police for the past ten years. Senor Arnau has been since the beginning of the first period of American intervention an editor of a long succession of publications such as El Rebelde, El Reconcentrado, El Batalla and El Debate, most of which have been suppressed by the authorities. Under the first period of American intervention a paper of which Arnau was the editor was suppressed for the attacks on the wife of Brigadier General William Ludlow, the military governor, and other American ladies. General Ludlow at this time ordered the police to arrest Arnau dead or alive. He was given immunity under a pledge that never again would he publish a newspaper in Havana.

Almost the entire force of the secret police have tendered their resignations, declaring that they declined to serve under Arnau.

A wholesale discharge of employees in all the departments of the government was made and to these vacancies, it is said, Liberal partisans of the government will be appointed.

Moran and Murphy Fight

New York, Jan. 30.—Owen Moran, featherweight champion of England, had a slight advantage in the ten-round fight with Tommy Murphy, the lightweight, of this city, before the National Athletic club. The fight was a hard fought one all through, with clean and clever work on both sides. No decision was rendered.

The home of J. B. Swisher, of Flak, was burned recently, the house and contents being a total loss. Mr.
Swisher was away from home at the time and Mrs. Swisher was in the woods near the house when the fire started.
She was able to save one bed, but all the rest of the household goods were burned. There was no insurance.
The loss comes especially hard as this is the second time this misfortune has befallen Mr. and Mrs. Swisher.

himself as unable to settle down to well-to-do uncle who is in the same position, having lost his wife last fall, and now has offered to pay Mr. Locke's expenses if he would accompany him on a trip through the south. Mr.

Locke thinks very seriously of accept-one trip.

EDISON'S NEW BATTERY.

Inventor Says It Will Revolutionize Surface Car Traffic.

Thomas A. Edison recently declared that he was about to revolutionize surface car traffic by means of his perfected storage battery.

It is the opinion of the inventor that tests which he contemplates making on the Third Avenue line in New York in the spring will prove that future traction investments will consist solely in the purchase of cars, the battery equipment and the erection of comparatively cheap charging stations in addition to the laying of rails.

"I have been working on the storage battery for a number of months with the idea in mind of avoiding the heavy investment which goes with each venture of the kind nowadays," said Mr. Edison. "A generating station which must remain practically idle most of the night is naturally a drain on the resources of any company, and after I have demonstrated the commercial practicability of the storage battery I have no doubt that future investments will confine themselves to the battery system.

"I have made no changes in the battery which I perfected years ago. The elements are the same—nickel, with an alkali reaction—but I have made those improvements that are bound to follow steady experimentation till now I am convinced that I have the battery that is needed. I am satisfied
I could put a car into service today that would run a whole day without recharging, but there will be practical tests for a couple of months in New York."

PLAN TO VIVIFY THE SOUTH.

Million Dollar Building to Be Erected in Washington to Exhibit Products.

The executive committee of the southern commercial congress recently began its campaign for vivifying the south in a business way by calling for subscriptions to aid in erecting a million dollar building in Washington which is to be used as headquarters for the congress, says an Atlanta dispatch. A large hall of the proposed building is to be used for keeping on exhibition the products of the south. As the result of a call for subscriptions $25,000 was at once pledged.

Fifteen states are to take part in the movement, and the promoters say there will be no trouble in securing the million dollars needed. The plan involves the practical establishment in Washington of a southern department of commerce and labor, managed by practical business men, directed to the development of the south's resources rather than the exploitation of localities, directing immigration to the whole section rather than to a single community and bringing to the attention of investors from other sections the opportunities offered by the south.

FIVE DAYS A WEEK'S WORK.

New Plan Being Tried to Shorten Working Days.

A rather novel experiment in connection with employees' hours of labor is being tried by the Curtis Publishing company of Philadelphia. Not only have they adopted and put into effect the forty-eight hour week throughout their mechanical departments, but instead of the conventional schedules under which this time is distributed over six working days the total of forty-eight hours' work will hereafter be done in the five days from Monday to Friday, inclusive.

The employees in the mechanical departments of the business will by this change have all day Saturday and Sunday for recreation and rest. The result of the innovation from the employers' standpoint is being watched with considerable interest by other concerns in the same line of business.

endeavoring to interest the women of the excellence of its organization accounts for its power and prestige the world over. It has done for humanity what scattered philanthropists never could have accomplished, and the suffering of sick and wounded has everywhere been alleviated. The human heart cannot be less touched by the miseries of childhood.

"Charitable workers and sociologists are agreed that no outlay of effort repays so largely as the work in behalf of unfortunate little ones. Every great city now has its institutions and its societies devoted to the relief of sick and destitute children. Why not concentrate these efforts in one great organization, to be known as the White Cross, which shall ultimately equal in numbers and prestige the great Red Cross?

"This has come to be my fixed idea,
and I hope before leaving this country to be able to interest many persons in the formation of such an organization."

The Russian noblewoman is one of the most interesting travelers to visit turer of distinction and one of the most philanthropic women of Russia.

Washington hotel. "That as well as the excellence of its organization accounts for its power and prestige the world over. It has done for humanity what scattered philanthropists never could have accomplished, and the suffering of sick and wounded has everywhere been alleviated. The human heart cannot be less touched by the miseries of childhood."

"Charitable workers and sociologists are agreed that no outlay of effort repays so largely as the work in behalf of unfortunate little ones. Every great city now has its institutions and its societies devoted to the relief of sick and destitute children. Why not concentrate these efforts in one great organization, to be known as the White Cross, which shall ultimately equal in numbers and prestige the great Red Cross?"

"This has come to be my fixed idea, and I hope before leaving this country to be able to interest many persons in the formation of such an organization." The Russian noblewoman is one of the most interesting travelers to visit Washington, is related to many of the most famous families of the Russian aristocracy and is looked on as one of the most brilliant women of her native country. She is a writer and lecturer of distinction and one of the most philanthropic women of Russia.

"What are the terms of the wager?"

The New Patriotism.

The old patriotism was much concerned with guns and flags and all the paraphernalia of war. The new patriotism is to be a thing of schools, hospitals and churches and mission halls for all who feel the extraordinary burdens of life. The new patriotism will concern itself with clean streets and well built houses. It will demand that the rich be satisfied with less and that the poor have more. It will not be so spectacular, but it will be more real, more vitally related with the raw needs of human life. The day of the hero on horseback is past. The day of the hero in the bonds of civic self sacrifice has come.—A. J. Haynes in "Social and Religious Ideas."

Most of us think our duty done if, when stillness is enjoined, we sit quietly in a chair. Yet finger tips, mouth or foot may be moving restlessly all the time, depriving us of the full benefit of rest. Quietness should be applied to everything we do. To prove its necessity watch yourself for a day and see how many needless movements you make. Perhaps you are at a desk, and as you write you draw your eyes toward your nose. This habit tenses all the muscles around our eyes, draws up those near the nose and as far down as the chin. Besides being un-restful it is a sure beauty destroyer, making one cross looking. Equally bad is it to drum with the fingers, lock and unlock them, rub the hands round and round or keep them ever in motion. Yet how often does one see hands that are kept perfectly still in the lap?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Unknown Men Killed by West Bound Local Freight Near Kimberly Friday

HE WAS EVIDENTLY DRUNK

Had Pack Sack and Bottle Partially Filled With Whiskey
In His Pocket

An unknown man was killed by the west bound local freight train about three miles east of Kimberly Friday afternoon at 2:05. The man was lying asleep between the rails when struck and owing to the storm and snow was not seen until just as the train struck him. The man, who it is said had started from McGregor with a pack sack and a bottle of whiskey, was dressed like a lumber jack. That he was intoxicated was the opinion of Conductor Nichols, of the train which killed him. The body was still warm when taken out from under the train, so that he had not perished from cold. A bottle of whiskey had been in his pocket and while the bottle was not broken the cork had come out and the liquor had saturated his clothes. The skull was crushed and life was extinct when he was taken out from under the train. The coroner of Aitkin county was notified and went down on the east bound local and took the body to McGregor. So far as could be learned this morning his identity had not been discovered.

CONDITIONS STILL BAD

Weather Turned Much Colder Last Night and Train Service is Still Badly Demoralized

Storm condition grew worse if anything Friday as the day drew on. The passenger train which should have arrived from the south at 1:30 did not get in until 4:30 o'clock and the train was compelled to tie up here.

It was "skidoo" indeed in the yards here. It took three big freight engines and a monster switch engine to push 23 cars out of the yards yesterday afternoon and nearly every freight train was compelled to tie up here.

The weather turned much colder during the afternoon and the promised cold wave put in its appearance but this had no effect upon the northwest wind which kept piling the snow up just as rapidly as it had done here all day. With the increased cold railroad men predict an almost complete tieup. The Minnesota & International train left about 5:30 with two engines and strong hopes of making the run to International Falls in nearly schedule time as there is reported to be much less snow on the north end than here. However they were delayed two hours at Bemidji by a freight on which the engine failed. They got into International Falls at 3:45 this morning.

The Minnesota & International railroad's weather reports this morning show it to have been 30 below at International Falls and Big Falls, 34 below at Blackduck, Keliher and Northome, 24 below at Bemidji and Brainerd and 26 below at Walker.

With the rapidly falling temperature and a wind which packed the snow so that in places it would bear a man's weight, the railroad situation was no better today than yesterday. The east bound passenger was four hours and more late and freights were scarcely moving. The west bound local was lost between Carleton and McGregor several hours last night, but finally left the latter place at 7:45 this morning. The company, with a burst of unwonted generosity advanced wages of snow shovelers to 15 cents an hour this morning, but men would not respond to the munificent offer and only the regular section crew was at work in the yards here today.

WHY YOU HAVE THE DYSPEPSIA

The Most Certain Cure for all Stomach Trouble is Waiting for You

END ALL STOMACH MISERY

Diapiesin Gives Relief in Five Minutes and Thoroughly Regulates Your Stomach

Does it ever occur to you how busy that little stomach of yours is? It actually only holds three pints, though in one year you force it to take in 2,500 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation to the blood. Do you wonder at all the number of cases of indigestion and stomach trouble? You crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids and expect this little four-ounce mill to do the work.

Is there any wonder that your food passes undigested, or lays like a lump of lead in the stomach? That everything you eat turns to acid, stomach gas and stomach poison, putrefying the intestines and digestive canals, causing biliousness, headaches, dizziness and indigestion, heartburn, nauseous breath, constipation and other more dangerous symptoms?

Call your disease what you will—indigestion, gastritis, nervousness, dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach, etc.—you know the real name, the real disease is fermentation of the food you eat—a sour stomach, which belches gas and erupts undigested food or causes a feeling of nausea and miserableness.

All these miseries vanish promptly when you stop this food fermentation. Take fifty cents to your pharmacist for a case of Pape's Diapiesin. Eat a triangle, and five minutes later your stomach will do what a healthy stomach should—that is, turn every bite you eat into bodily nourishment and without you realizing that you have a stomach. One triangle will digest all the food you eat without the aid of the stomach, because it contains just the elements found in a good, strong, healthy stomach.

Weather Prevented

L. Boruszak, of Chicago, was in the city last night in the interests of the proposed new factory town which was recently platted between Nisswa and Hubert, on the Minnesota & International railroad about 14 miles north of this city. The name of the proposed town will be Boruszak, being the same as his name with the letter "s" omitted. Mr. Boruszak stated this morning that he should return in about a month and that the erection of a factory and other buildings would be commenced as soon as weather would permit. He stated that the manufacture of garments from silk goods would be the first industry started but that several Chicago firms, who were desirous of getting their factories away from towns, where pure air, good water and ample space were to be had, were interested in the project. He will build a summer residence for his family at the new town and bring them there early the coming summer.

HOW TO RELIEVE EFFECTS OF STRAIN

After having done an unusually hard day's work or undergone some unaccustomed strain such as is likely to leave the muscles sore and stiff mix fifteen drops of the tincture of arnica thoroughly in one-half glass of water and take one teaspoonful of the mixture every hour until relieved. This will give much quicker relief than when applied externally. It is also one of the best remedies to promote absorption, remove soreness and prevent inflammation in any wound or bruise of the soft parts of the body.—Minnesota Dairyman.

GLIMPSE OF ELIHU ROOT.

Distinctive Character of New York's
New Senator.

Distinctive describes probably as well as any other word the personality or individuality of the Hon. Elihu Root, who has been selected by the New York legislature to succeed Thomas C. Platt in the senate of the United States. It is said of him that never in his long career as lawyer and statesman has Mr. Root been compared as to deeds or mannerisms with another man.

No one thinks of comparing him to Webster or Clay as an orator. He is not a great orator, but is a direct and forceful speaker. When he makes a public or political speech he says things that his hearers remember, and there is probably no other public man in the country today who can compel closer attention of an audience.

Some of Mr. Root's speeches in recent years have indeed been heard around the world, and they have helped to make diplomatic history. His speeches on his Canadian, Mexican and South American trips rank as masterpieces of wisdom, conservatism and diplomatic sagacity.

There are three points in the character of Mr. Root that impress all men who come in contact with him, and the impression is always lasting alertness, directness and thoroughness. He is a man of splendid physique, and in every step he takes, every move of his arms, there is a vague, indefinable something that serves notice on the visitor that Mr. Root is every moment on the alert. He is never caught off guard. His directness is indicated in two ways—by the straightforward look from his eyes at a visitor and the fact that his conversation, no matter how trivial the subject, is always straight to the point—no wasting of words.

It was as a lawyer, at the very outset of his practice, that Mr. Root made a reputation for thoroughness. When he undertook to serve a client he went closely into every detail of the case and soon attracted the attention of bench and bar by his thorough preparedness when he went into court to try it. That same quality of thoroughness has been characteristic of Mr. Root's work as statesman and diplomat.

The personality of Mr. Root is pleasing to all who know him, yet that, like the man, is distinctive. He is thoroughly democratic in manner at all times and under all circumstances, approachable by the humblest politician in the land, a good handshaker, a good mixer, in the vernacular of politics, but no one ever slaps him on the back, and his best friends do not call him Elihu in public or private. But the slight reserve that seems to surround him, if it is reserve, is that of intellectuality.

African Hunting.

[R. J. Cunningham, famous African guide, says that all the hardships of African hunting are past and that luxury has taken their place.]

If you go a-hunting lions
Now in Africa afar,
You may penetrate the jungle
In a Pullman palace car.

In the very, very darkest Part of Africa you may Press a button for the porter,
Who will bring you vin frappe.

All the forests are illumined
With electric lights, and so
You may roam them without danger
If a-hunting you should go.

All the hardship has departed
With the danger and distress.
All the natives dine at seven,
And they all wear evening dress.

In the thicket and the jungle,
If you care to pay the price,
You may eat a ten course dinner,
With your oysters served on ice.

And when you have slaughtered lions
And have finished for the day
You may pass the time at billiards
Or take in the latest play.

CONDITIONS STILL BAD

Weather Turned Much Colder Last Night and Train Service Is Still Badly Demoralized

Storm condition grew worse if anything Friday as the day drew on. The passenger train which should have arrived from the south at 1:30 did not get in until 4:30 o'clock and the train was compelled to tie up here.

It was "skidoo" indeed in the yards here. It took three big freight engines and a monster switch engine to push 23 cars out of the yards yesterday afternoon and nearly every freight train was compelled to tie up here.

The weather turned much colder during the afternoon and the promised cold wave put in its appearance but this had no effect upon the northwest wind which kept piling the snow up just as rapidly as it had done here all day. With the increased cold railroad men predict an almost complete tieup. The Minnesota & International train left about 5:30 with two engines and strong hopes of making the run to International Falls in nearly schedule time as there is reported to be much less snow on the north end than here. However they were delayed two hours at Bemidji by a freight on which the engine failed. They got into International Falls at 3:45 this morning.

The Minnesota & International railroad's weather reports this morning show it to have been 30 below at International Falls and Big Falls, 34 below at Blackduck, Kelliher and Northome, 24 below at Bemidji and Brainerd and 26 below at Walker.

With the rapidly falling temperature and a wind which packed the snow so that in places it would bear a man's weight, the railroad situation was no better today than yesterday. The east bound passenger was four hours and more late and freights were scarcely moving. The west bound local was lost between Carleton and McGregor several hours last night, but finally left the latter place at 7:45 this morning. The company, with a burst of unwonted generosity advanced wages of snow shovelers to 15 cents an hour this morning, but men would not respond to the munificent offer and only the regular section crew was at work in the yards here today.

WHY YOU HAVE THE DYSPEPSIA

The Most Certain Cure for all Stomach Trouble is Wait- ing for You

END ALL STOMACH MISERY

Diapepsin Gives Relief in Five Minutes and Thoroughly Regu- lates Your Stomach

Does it ever occur to you how busy that little stomach of yours is? It actually only holds three pints, though in one year you force it to take in 2,500 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation to the blood. Do you wonder at all the number of cases of indigestion and stomach trouble? You crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids and expect this little four-ounce mill to do the work.

Is there any wonder that your food passes undigested, or lays like a lump of lead in the stomach? That everything you eat turns to acid, stomach gas and stomach poison, putrefying the intestines and digestive canals, causing biliousness, headaches, dizziness and indigestion, heartburn, nauseous breath, constipation and other more dangerous symptoms?

Call your disease what you will—indigestion, gastritis, nervousness, dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach, etc.—you know the real name, the real disease is fermentation of the food you eat—a sour stomach, which belches gas and erupts undigested food or causes a feeling of nausea and miserableness.

All these miseries vanish promptly when you stop this food fermentation. Take fifty cents to your pharmacist for a case of Pape's Diapepsin. Eat a triangle, and five minutes later your stomach will do what a healthy stomach should—that is, turn every bite you eat into bodily nourishment and without you realizing that you have a stomach. One triangle will digest all the food you eat without the aid of the stomach, because it contains just the elements found in a good, strong, healthy stomach.

WILL PUT IN SIDE TRACK

Came to Visit New Town Site With Railroad Engineers but Weather Prevented

L. Boruszak, of Chicago, was in the city last night in the interests of the proposed new factory town which was recently platted between Nisswa and Hubert, on the Minnesota & International railroad about 14 miles north of this city. The name of the proposed town will be Boruszak, being the same as his name with the letter "s" omitted. Mr. Boruszak stated this morning that he should return in about a month and that the erection of a factory and other buildings would be commenced as soon as weather would permit. He stated that the manufacture of garments from silk goods would be the first industry started but that several Chicago firms, who were desirous of getting their factories away from towns, where pure air, good water and ample space were to be had, were interested in the project. He will build a summer residence for his family at the new town and bring them there early the coming summer.

HOW TO RELIEVE EFFECTS OF STRAIN

After having done an unusually hard day's work or undergone some unaccustomed strain such as is likely to leave the muscles sore and stiff mix fifteen drops of the tincture of arnica thoroughly in one-half glass of water and take one teaspoonful of the mixture every hour until relieved. This will give much quicker relief than when applied externally. It is also one of the best remedies to promote absorption, remove soreness and prevent inflammation in any wound or bruise of the soft parts of the body.—Minnesota Dairyman.

GLIMPSE OF ELIHU ROOT.

Distinctive Character of New York's
New Senator.

Distinctive describes probably as well as any other word the personality or individuality of the Hon. Elihu Root, who has been selected by the New York legislature to succeed Thomas C. Platt in the senate of the United States. It is said of him that never in his long career as lawyer and statesman has Mr. Root been compared as to deeds or mannerisms with another man.

No one thinks of comparing him to Webster or Clay as an orator. He is not a great orator, but is a direct and forceful speaker. When he makes a public or political speech he says things that his hearers remember, and there is probably no other public man in the country today who can compel closer attention of an audience.

Some of Mr. Root's speeches in recent years have indeed been heard around the world, and they have helped to make diplomatic history. His speeches on his Canadian, Mexican and South American trips rank as masterpieces of wisdom, conservatism and diplomatic sagacity.

There are three points in the character of Mr. Root that impress all men who come in contact with him, and the impression is always lasting, alertness, directness and thoroughness. He is a man of splendid physique, and in every step he takes, every move of his arms, there is a vague, indefinable something that serves notice on the visitor that Mr. Root is every moment on the alert. He is never caught off guard. His directness is indicated in two ways—by the straightforward look from his eyes at a visitor and the fact that his conversation, no matter how trivial the subject, is always straight to the point—no wasting of words.

It was as a lawyer, at the very outset of his practice, that Mr. Root made a reputation for thoroughness. When he undertook to serve a client he went closely into every detail of the case, and soon attracted the attention of bench and bar by his thorough preparedness when he went into court to try it. That same quality of thoroughness has been characteristic of Mr. Root's work as statesman and diplomat.

The personality of Mr. Root is pleasing to all who know him, yet that, like the man, is distinctive. He is thoroughly democratic in manner at all times and under all circumstances, approachable by the humblest politician in the land, a good handshaker, a good mixer, in the vernacular of politics, but no one ever slaps him on the back, and his best friends do not call him Elihu in public or private. But the slight reserve that seems to surround him, if it is reserve, is that of intellectuality.

African Hunting.

[R. J. Cunningham, famous African guide, says that all the hardships of African hunting are past and that luxury has taken their place.]

If you go a-hunting lions Now in Africa afar, You may penetrate the jungle In a Pullman palace car.

In the very, very darkest Part of Africa you may Press a button for the porter, Who will bring you win frappe.

All the forests are illumined With electric lights, and so You may roam them without danger If a-hunting you should go.

All the hardship has departed With the danger and distress. All the natives dine at seven, And they all wear evening dress.

In the thicket and the jungle, If you care to pay the price, You may eat a ten course dinner, With your oysters served on ice.

And when you have slaughtered lions And have finished for the day You may pass the time at billiards Or take in the latest play. —New York World.

TIN HORN WARNING.

Novel Plan of Campaign in Illinois Town to Frigate Burglars.

Should a stranger in Lake Bluff, Ill., which has recently been the scene of many robberies, incur the suspicion of any woman resident hereafter she will rush to a second story window and fire five shots from a revolver and then begin to toot a tin horn she has been instructed to buy. Her women neighbors will open windows and toot their horns.

The man nearest the fire bell will start it ringing, and the church bells will be rung. By this time the town policemen and new town bloodhound will be rushing forth. The citizens' committee lately formed is responsible for these instructions.

Device to Prevent Rust on Corsets.

A device to cover the metal portions on the front part of corsets to obviate rusting and unsightliness has been invented by Theodore Wickersham of Coatesville, Pa., a merchant of that place. The invention consists of a small celluloid cover which fits over the clasps of the corset and slips between the stay and the fabric. It not only removes the possibility of rust due to perspiration, which eventually discolors the fabric, but makes unnecessary the nickel plating process to which the hooks and studs are now subjected.

FOR A NEW MESSINA.

Italy Asks Japan How to Build Earthquake Proof Town.

"Messina will be rebuilt," was the message brought by the Rev. V. Alberto Costabel the other day to the Philadelphia Waldensian society at its meeting in Westminster hall. Mr. Costabel is delegate from the Waldensian church of Italy to the United States and is the pastor of a church in Messina that was destroyed by the earthquake. He spoke on "Messina—As It Was and Is Today."

"Messina will be rebuilt, but not on the same spot," said the Italian minister. "The location is too dangerous. The new city will be about a mile from the old one. And its houses will be of different construction. The king of Italy has sent to the emperor of Japan for engineers to instruct the Italians how to build a new Messina that will withstand an earthquake."

Mr. Costabel said the destroyed city must be built again because "it is impossible to destroy twenty centuries of history."

WORST STORM OF THE SEASON

Stalls Trains, Wrecks Buildings and Breaks Wires.

SLOWLY SWEEPS EASTWARD

Blizzard Now Centered in the Vicinity of Detroit—Whole Communities Cut Off From Communication With the Outside World—Two Lives Lost During the Storm in Illinois.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—The storm of sleet, snow and rain which, swirled along by a high wind during the past twenty-four hours, has prostrated telegraph and telephone wires, stalled trains, wrecked buildings and isolated whole communities, has struck Chicago and is reported central in the vicinity of Detroit. The wind blew forty miles an hour here and the thermometer registered a drop of over twenty degrees to 10 above zero. Snow covered the streets and Assistant Chief of Police Schuetzler sent orders to every police station in the city to turn no shelterless person away. At the weather bureau it was forecasted that the snow would cease by morning, but that the wind and cold would continue. The indications were that the storm, passing through Detroit, would find its way out through the St. Lawrence valley.

The day was one long fight by the telegraph and railroad companies to restore wires and rescue stalled trains. Early in the day all the roads sent out warnings to all employees or dering them to prepare for blizzards. No freight trains are running in the storm belt in Iowa, and few in Wisconsin and Minnesota. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road reported practically all of its wires down.

Trains Reported Missing.

Their limited train from the Pacific coast was nine hours late getting in to Marion, Ia., and is expected to be eighteen hours late here. On the Minnesota division a freight train was stalled and passenger trains were held up behind it. Another train—a passenger—with neither dinner nor sleep—was reported missing from La Crosse, as was another train which started to its relief. The best information obtainable at La Crosse was that both trains were stuck in the snow in South Dakota. At the general offices here no news was received concerning the wanderers. That the passengers would suffer from cold and lack of food was taken for granted.

Madison, Wis., was one of the cities cut off from the outside world. The wind and sleet cut communication in every direction, leaving the state of Wisconsin for many hours without news of the progress of the senatorial fight. A wire was restored to Chicago in the afternoon long enough to get a brief dispatch concerning the day's ballot through, but it was quickly lost.

The telegraph companies have succeeded in patching up a service north and west in sections where it had been abandoned. Further loss of wires to other points in the storm's path, however, is feared.

STORM SWEEPS ST. LOUIS

Causes Death or Injury to Many Persons in That Vicinity.

St. Louis, Jan. 30.—Death or injury to many persons, considerable property damage, delayed trains, interrupted wire communication and stagnation of all outside business composed the net results of the storm which swept St. Louis and its vicinity. Driven by a wind which varied from seventy miles an hour in Western Missouri to forty-five miles or more in Southern Illinois, snow and sleet rendered traffic almost impossible on steam or electric lines and bewildered pedestrians so that in some instances they were unable to escape fatal dangers.

At Madison, Ill., Erwin Mikesell, blinded by snow, failed to notice an approaching train and was ground to death beneath the wheels. In the same town Charles Jackowich was swept from his feet by the gale and fell so heavily that his neck was broken.

Property damage was confined to mainly broken windows, uprooted trees or shattered signs.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE

New Demand Still Conservative at Most Markets.

New York, Jan. 30.—Bradstreet's review of trade says trade is rather quieter this week, exceptions being a few points in the West, Southwest and Pacific Northwest, where more is reported doing by wholesalers and jobbers. At most markets new demand is still conservative, an indisposition prevailing to buy heavily pending the settlement of tariff, crop or other uncertainties and the tendency is, as throughout most of last year, to buy in small lots for quick shipments. Lines showing especially quiet conditions just at present are iron and steel, in which demand is disappointing. Good reports still come from the cotton goods line, where demand is steady, despite recent advances. Men's wear woolen goods for fall are in better inquiry. Fertilizers, implements and seeds are active as heretofore. Lumber awaits the open season for building, but it is to be noted that demand is better in the Pacific Northwest, where output is increasing. Coal is not as active as earlier looked for.

TAFT CROSSES THE ISTHMUS

Eighth Time the President Elect Has Made the Trip.

Panama, Jan. 30.—President Elect Taft made his eighth trip across the Isthmus and everywhere was greeted with marked demonstrations of good will. With his party Mr. Taft landed at Colon and proceeded by special train to Culebra, where he is quartered at the residence of Lieutenant Colonel Goethals, chairman of the Panama canal commission. His reception by the Panama officials both at Colon and Culebra was most cordial. Mr. Taft today will visit the site of Gatun dam.

SENDS NOTE TO THE POWERS

Bulgaria Complains of the Attitude of Turkey.

Sofia, Jan. 30.—The Bulgarian government has delivered a note to the representatives of the powers complaining of the irreconcilable and uncompromising attitude of Turkey and declaring that the porte must be responsible for the consequences. The note does not solicit the intervention of the powers, but draws their attention to the tension of the situation.

Accuses Father of Murder.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Manfully declaring he would tell the truth though it pained him to do so, Howard Holmes, twelve years of age, testified in court that he saw his father, Charles E. Holmes, kill his mother in a quarrel. The mother died from injuries on Dec. 20, last. The boy said he saw the father strike her and tried to protect her. As the boy was telling his story the father, who is on trial, frequently wept.

Two More Jurors Chosen.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 30.—The ninth day of the trial of Colonel Duncan B. Cooper, Robin Cooper and John D. Sharp for the murder of former Senator E. W. Carmack closed with two additions having been made to the jury, which now numbers nine. The two recent acquisitions are Gus Knipfer and F. O. Belman. So far 1,195 talesmen have been examined in an effort to get the twelve men.

Blizzard Too Much for Him.

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—John Sims, thirty years old, a colored man, staggered into the Round Bar saloon, choking and gasping for breath, his disease weakened heart overtaxed by the unequal struggle with the fierce blizzard, and ten minutes later he was dead.

TAKEN OFF THE APPOINTIVE LIST

House Makes Public Examiner's Office Elective.

TERM PLACED AT FOUR YEARS

Several Democrats Vote for Passage of the Measure—Two Bills Increasing Amount of State Aid to Schools Introduced—Tuberculin Test for Cattle Reported on by a Special Committee.

St. Paul, Jan. 30.—Although looking like a party measure, W. A. Nolan's bill making the public examiner elective passed by what was far from a strict party vote. The vote on the final passage of the bill was seventy-eight to twenty-seven, but eight of the twenty-two Democrats in the house voted for the bill and a number of Republicans against it.

The opponents of the bill, having failed in the committee of the whole Thursday, tried a new move when C. L. Sawyer of Minneapolis moved to send it to the committee on banks and banking. Nolan at once moved a call of the house and got a roll call on the motion.

The vote on Sawyer's motion was thirty-four for and seventy-four against.

The bill was amended to make it a four-year term.

Two bills were presented to the senate increasing the amount of state aid to high schools and other schools of the state. Similar provisions are contained in the bills by O. G. Dale of Madison and S. A. Nelson of Lanesboro.

Several years ago Senator Nelson started a movement which increased the aid to high schools from $1,000 to $1,500, and now he would boost it to $2,000.

Reforestation Amendment.

Senator Nelson also introduced a bill for a proposal for a constitutional amendment relating to reforestation. He would have the people authorize a tax of three-tenths of a mill on the taxable property of the state for the purchase of land at a cost not to exceed $5 an acre on which trees are to be raised for lumber. The timber when sold will help the towns in which the forests are situated, as one-fourth of the proceeds will go to the town.

Pasteurization of the whey of cheese before being sold, the exclusive use of the Babcock test in estimating butter fat in milk, and a general salary boost for all the employees of the dairy and food commission is contemplated in a bill by Senator Anderson of Albert Lea.

A. L. Hanson of Ada would have the legislature change the methods of moving the county seat of a county. Under the change the petition is required to be filed with the secretary of state and the election is called by proclamation of the governor.

The tuberculin test for cattle got a jolt when a report of a special committee of the legislature, headed by J. C. Swanson of Fridley, was read. The report stated that the sanitary live stock board refused its assistance in the experiment the committee desired to make so they did the best they could with a dairy herd in one county. The committee put with a lot of cattle condemned by the tuberculin test, some which were said to be free from tuberculosis, and after slaughter all the cattle were found to be affected alike. The committee left with the legislature further investigation into what some members characterized as graft of the veterinarians.

Will Interest Smaller Cities.

A bill that will be of considerable interest to the smaller cities was introduced by E. A. Kling of Little Falls. It permits cities of 10,000 or less to acquire existing water, light and heating plants by condemnation.

The house members from Hennepin, Ramsey and St. Louis counties wrestled with the problem of allowing clubs to sell liquor without a license, but did not get farther than deciding to appoint a committee of five to draft a bill.

It was evident from the discussion that the bill, if drawn, will have to be a bill which takes in the whole state, and not only cities of 50,000 or over, and also that it will have to be very carefully drawn so as to exclude all so-called "liquor clubs." This latter problem is especially difficult, and it was evident that unless it can be satisfactorily done the bill will have little chance of passing.

D. A. Stuart of Windom offered a resolution in the house for a committee of five to draft a bill on the employers' liability question.

He wants some kind of a commission similar to that proposed by the governor's message, but he does not want legislation delayed by a commission that will propose a bill in the near future, but wants a bill that will give the employees some relief right away.

The senate passed the bill introduced by M. L. Fosseen of Minneapolis which prohibits school directors using basement rooms for instruction. Basement rooms are those in which the floor is below the level of the ground.

Such rooms can only be used for instruction in manual training, domestic science or physical culture.

PROPERTY DAMAGE IS HEAVY

Wind Unroofed Many Buildings in Nebraska.

Omaha, Jan. 30.—Although the wind which swept Nebraska and adjoining states has partially abated, the mercury has fallen below zero, which emphasized the after effects of the disastrous blizzard and was little less effective than the storm itself in its results.

Nearly every portion of the state reports disastrous results and in many places buildings were unroofed. At Plattsmouth, a fine new theater lost its roof. At Grand Island two business blocks were seriously damaged; at Beatrice several buildings were destroyed and at Lincoln the damage was great in proportion to the size of the city. It is estimated that $50,000 will not cover the monetary loss in Omaha aside from the inconvenience and suffering the storm has caused.

BIGGEST BALLOON EVER.

Philadelphia Society to Build the Philadelphia II.

The Philadelphia Aeronautical Recreation society has given up its idea of going in for aeroplanes and has ordered a new balloon built, which, it is said, will eclipse any in the United States. The new balloon will replace the Philadelphia, which burst when a few feet in the air on its first attempted flight last summer, and will be called Philadelphia II. The Philadelphia II. will have a 55,000 foot capacity and will be constructed by the Theuplet system of overlapping blocks of paramatta imported from France. It will have a new float line of coconut fiber, which has been ordered from a manufacturer in Italy.

The society expects to have the balloon completed in about sixty days, and during the second week in April the trial trip will be made. The society is trying to arrange for a balloon race to be held in Philadelphia and will attempt to have this event in May.

RAVEN FOR POE'S CHAMBER.

Tenant of Poe's Philadelphia Home to Place Bird Above Door.

A raven will soon perch above the door of the chamber in which Edgar Allan Poe, the famous poet, penned his immortal poem. The chamber is in the house at 530 North Seventh street, corner of Brandywine, Philadelphia, now occupied by Stephen Hibbs, an aged widower. Poe lived there two years.

"Only this, and nothing more," declares the venerable admirer of the unfortunate young genius, "should mark the small apartment in which the poet courted the muses to aid him in his struggle for the existence of himself, his delicate girl wife and her mother during the religious riots of 1843 and 1844."

"I'll stuff a bird of the raven species and put it above that chamber door," asserts Mr. Hibbs, who celebrated his seventy-fourth birthday anniversary a few days ago. "And the lamp light o'er him streaming" will throw "his shadow on the floor." 'Twill be my tablet to the memory of Poe."
